A Retaining Wall Needed.

Citizens of Charles street are complaining bitterly about the dangerous condition of the upper part of that thoroughfare. The wagon road is only about five feet wide, and the high embankment is crumbling away every day. Teamsters refuse to haul coal to the citizens there on account of the dangerous condition of the road, and if an accident should happen a heavy suit against the city would be the result. It is understood the people in that neighborhood have petitioned council time and again for a retaining wall to protect the street, but it appears their prayers have not been listened to. "A stitch in time would save" much money to the city.

U. R. K. OF P. GROWING.

Division N. 31 to be instituted in this City this Evening.

To-night the Cour de Lion division No. 1, Uniformed Rank Knights of Pythias, will institute the second uniformed division of that order in this city, at the rooms of the Ohio Valley Lodge No. 31, on Market street. The name of the new division, which starts off under very auspicious circumstances, having thirty-eight charter members, will be the Col. Bernard Shanley Division No. 21, Uniformed Rank Knights of Pythias. Instituting officer, Capt. George W. Weisgerber, of the Cour de Lion division, will have charge of the exercises and the installation of officers. Both divisions will then give a short parade in full uniform, headed by Master's band. At the conclusion of the parade the members of the order will give a big banquet at Arion hall. A fine programme has been arranged for the entertainment of the guests during the course of the banquet.

GAMBLERS MUST QUIT.

The Chief of Police Issues an Order Closing all Places

WHERE GAMING HAS BEEN GOING ON.

One Faro Bank, three or Four Poker Rooms, two Crap Shops, and Four or Five Policy Places Served with Notice to Stop the Business—Most of the Games Said to be Crooked. How long will it Last?

For some time past several gambling places have been in full blast about town, and games have been run pretty constantly in most of them. Business is said, however, to have been pretty dull, and one or two places are reported to have shut up voluntarily, explaining that they "didn't make a cent." At any rate, the places have been very quiet, although one of them is credited with having pretty stiff playing at times. Of policy shops and places where policy was written there were an indefinite number, more or less openly run in back rooms of saloons, while inside of a few months crap shooting has found several resorts always open for exercise with "the bones."

Recently there has been complaint that several of the games were not "on the square." It has been said that a countryman, or other amateur, who sat down in a game was pretty sure to lose, and this was ascribed by the victims to conspiracy on the part of local professionals, in some cases the charge being also made that the proprietors connived at this form of robbery. Whether this is generally true or not, there has been a great deal of talk in sporting circles to that effect.

Chief of Police McNichol has led several crusades against policy shops. Pretty soon after each, however, the playing was quietly revived. Policy is one of the worst of gambling devices, for it draws in anybody, black or white, old or young, who can raise five cents. Children have even been known to play it by "throwing in" a cent or two each, thus raising the necessary nicker. Even when run on the most honest plan, the percentage is enormous against the player, and there is absolutely no guarantee that the game is not crooked. In regard to "craps," it is said that there is scarcely a devotee of the game who has not a set of "crooked" dice, by the use of which it is impossible not to win. This week Chief McNichol decided that it was time to put a stop to gambling in all forms, so far as it can be done. He therefore issued an order that all persons interested in gaming places of every kind be warned to stop the business immediately.

Yesterday Lieutenant Lukins served this notice on one faro bank, three or four poker rooms, two crap dens and four or five policy shops. These were all in operation between Eleventh and Sixteenth streets. Whether there are resorts of the same kind in other parts of town is not known, but there are suspected to be several. The chief of police says they will all be warned as soon as located, and any one that continues to run after the warning will be pulled every day till it is closed.

The first question the keepers of these places ask when served with the notice, is, "What does this mean?" To this Capt. McNichol's prompt answer is, "It means business."

So far the notice seems to have had the desired effect, but the question, How long will it last? is being discussed with interest in sporting circles. The order, it is stated, is intended to be permanent.

MEMORIAL DAY—THE HUB CLOTHIERS.

MEMORIAL DAY.

"The muffled drum's sad roll has beat
The soldier's last tattoo,
No more in life's parade shall meet
That brave and fallen few.

"Nor shall their glory be forgot
While Fame her record keeps,
Or Honor points the hallowed spot
Where Valor proudly sleeps."

A GAIN in a few days the sweetly solemn function of Memorial Day will be at hand, again comes the time when we are to forget for awhile the fact of selfish gain getting and close for a few hours in loving remembrance of "those who gave their lives to gain for us all that we now enjoy." Did you ever think of that, young man or young woman? Memorial Day is more than a National day. It is

A SABBATH FOR HUMANITY.

It is a testimony to the world of the manhood, the valor, the self-sacrifice of a free people, who fought, not for themselves alone, but for the enfranchisement of millions of bondsmen, and that a government of the people, for the people and by the people might live. On that day when loving hands decorate the graves of the fallen hosts, see to it that the little mounds marked "Unknown" are especially remembered. The tragedies of war and the glories of peace, the story has never been told and never will be.

Decoration Day suggests the Blue G. A. R. Clothing. We have them in large assortment, Plain Sack, Single-Breasted Straight Cut Sack, Double-Breasted Sack and Four-Button Frock. Our great Suit Sale, advertised in last Sunday's News and Daily INTELLIGENCER, was a pleasant surprise to all who called during the week. We'll surprise hundreds more during this week. Come by all means and see what we are doing. Boys' and Children's Clothing at prices that'll catch 'em all. Always ready to show you bargains at
